About your National Insurance number

Your National Insurance number is unique to you and will never change. To prevent identity fraud, do not share it with anyone who does not need it.

You'll need it if you:

- start work (including part time and weekend jobs)
- apply for a driving licence
- apply for a student loan
- claim state benefits
- register to vote

It's not proof of:

- your identity
- your right to work in the UK

Child Trust Fund

Born between 1 September 2002 and 2 January 2011? You may have money in a Child Trust Fund. For more information, go to www.gov.uk/child-trust-funds

Now you've got your National Insurance number

You can go online at www.gov.uk/personal-tax-account where you can:

- create and access your Personal Tax Account
 - save and print another copy of this letter
 - tell us about a change to your address
 - check your income tax estimate and tax code
- Or download and use the HMRC App.
